ASK YOURSELF.

Does your partner...

- Criticize or humiliate you?
- Disregard your thoughts or feelings?
- Get jealous easily?
- Scare or frighten you?
- Control all your finances?
- Threaten you or loved ones?
- Isolate you from family and friends?
- Destroy your belongings?
- Emotionally, mentally, verbally or physically abuse you?

If you answered “yes” to any of the above,

You are not alone.
We can help!

SOUTH SHORE WOMEN’S RESOURCE CENTER

P. O. Box 6237
North Plymouth, MA 02362
Office (508) 746-2664
Hotline (888) 746-2664
Fax (508) 746-4668
www.theswrc.org

Court Street Thrift Boutique
71 Court Street
Plymouth, MA 02360
508-746-4557

Opened in 2011: proceeds help support the
South Shore Women’s Resource Center

South Shore Women’s Resource Center (formerly South Shore Women’s Center) is a program of Southeast Regional Network.

MOVA grants to SSWRC are supported by Grant # 2006-WF-AX-0072 awarded by the Violence Against Women Grants Office, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice to the Massachusetts Executive Office of Public Safety Programs Division and sub-granted to the United Way. Points of view in this document are those of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official position or policies of the U.S. Department of Justice or the Massachusetts Executive Office of Public Safety Programs Division.

Funding has been provided by MA DCF, federal grants (VAWA and VOCA), private fund-raising (grants, events, and donations), and United Way of Greater Plymouth County.

Our services are open to all regardless of age, race, color, sexual orientation, religious beliefs, nation of origin, income, or ability level.
South Shore Women's Resource Center is a not-for-profit, community-based program that has been assisting abused women, men, and children for over 30 years. The Center's focus is to create a confidential, welcoming environment where victims can feel safe to make empowering choices in their lives.

EMERGENCY SERVICES
- 24-hour, toll-free hotline support, 365 days a year.
- Emergency shelter for abused victims and their children within our network of confidential safe homes and/or assistance with long-term placement.

COUNSELING & SUPPORT
- Individual counseling and support groups for victims focusing on overcoming the effects of abuse. Services are free and confidential.
- The Older Women's Program helps support women over 55 with issues of neglect and abuse while working to preserve their dignity and independence. Services are free and confidential.
- Clinical individual, group, and family therapy for children and adolescents affected by domestic violence and teen dating violence, including services for gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender (GLBT) youth. Insurances are utilized.

ADVOCACY
- SAFEPLAN Court Advocacy in Plymouth District, Plymouth Probate, Wareham District, and Hingham District Courts, providing assistance with restraining orders, safety planning, information, resources, and referrals.
- Civilian Advocacy within 17 police departments throughout Plymouth County, providing victim contact and support, risk assessment, safety planning, information, resources, and referrals. Services are free and confidential.
- Advocacy within Jordan Hospital's Emergency Department, providing crisis intervention, support, information, resources, and referrals. Services are free and confidential.
- Referrals to community and government agencies, including the Department of Transitional Assistance, the Department of Children and Families, Social Security, and Victim Compensation.

COMMUNITY EDUCATION & TRAININGS
- Training for law enforcement, healthcare professionals, and social and human service providers on identifying and working with victims of domestic violence.

The mission of the South Shore Women's Resource Center is to seek the end of abuse and violence against women, children, and families. We work to further a community culture that provides safety and support to those affected by domestic violence and to advocate for social change through activism, education, and leadership in our community.

24-Hour, Toll-Free Hotline
888-746-2664

- Workshops for community groups, including civic, religious, and professional organizations, to build community awareness.
- Outreach within schools and youth organizations for students, teachers, providers, and parents, offering education on teen dating violence, sexual harassment, and healthy relationships.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES
South Shore Women's Resource Center offers many ways for you to support our work by volunteering your time: hotline support, safe home provision, court advocacy, group facilitation, community outreach, fund-raising, event coordination, office support, thrift store, and more.

For more information about volunteering, please call us at 508-746-2664.

The Center also accepts memorial/in honor of gifts, non-perishable food, and in-kind donations.